

Avery Parker is known for epic productions that focus on melody. In a day and age when the musical elements & melodies have been pushed to the background in dance music his sound is very refreshing. With several releases under his belt Parker is gaining more and more notoriety as a prolific song writer. His first release "Eon" was rated 4.5 out of 5 stars by trackitdown.net. Several of Parker's tracks have also been featured in the iPhone app, "Superstar DJ."

There is nothing quite like experiencing the Avery Parker sound live in one of his original DJ sets. You are sure to be touched by the beautiful melodies and compelled to dance your butt off to the driving beats. To top it off Parker has been known to bring in vocalists to perform their tracks live, giving club goers an experience they have never had before and will not forget anytime soon. 2009 was a big year for Parker, playing dozens of gigs to thousands of people, and 2010 is shaping up to be even bigger...
